Friend Wilcox,

...years of the 4th inst. Came duly to hand this morning, and was gratified to hear from you, I had been waiting patiently to hear from you for some time, but since leaving and writing you a few days since leaving to Reelfoot, Va..Depending upon your laws at home, the same will probably be forwarded to you. I am happy to hear that you have found employment, and judge you are well situated, and if your business should call you to this city I should be very happy to see you. The Office is
Cor. 19th St. where the Prison Marshal's office was found, and I am looking at present at 85 1/2 St. 10th St. 25.

In my letter directed to Reelfoot I sent you to forward me all the information you could in relation to your Gads that was sent as white, see some in Denver...
"Said," and I will try to find them if possible. I don't know as I can do anything, but I will try.

There was a large lot of unclaimed baggage here. I left it there. It was a few days since but didn't see our names on the list.

I am very pleasantly situated and like my will thus far. I have Horace Strenter out for my roommate. He is now on a visit to Kansas and I am keeping the Bachelor's Hall and have reduced to a science.

If you know someone here, please let me know it is that for language. Vine gatherer, spirits (you will find that in the medical dictionary) and anything of that nature, together with 11/2 hours, and read two chapters in the Bible every day.

and speaking in tongues, you might say that in any symphony, any more, and belong to the singing circle. Sons of Temperance, or any other man, are indulged in an ice cream occasionally and go to the theatre about once in two weeks. That is the extent of our discipline.

This being the city of magnificent distances you cannot
In the point without the help of a Field Glass. I ever thought I should like it there; but must consider it the Garden of Eden must to satisfy.
I have formed but few acquaintances and don't intend it. This is a very rough Coast to guide one's craft but thinks if I stick to the Helms, and give my mind to it I can steer clear of the rocks & sand bars and bring my craft in harbor safe.

an visit to President's grounds Wednesday afternoon to clear the Mind by the mind. Now is always a great display of Water falls and water, scenes and young gallants with their declensions, care and Poodle attachments.
eming to the interment here the gallant is obliged to make himself useful as well as ornamented by the energetic use of his pen after the decline and Poodle, which condone his exasperating.
I met many old Poodle acquaintances seen on the street. I met Mrs. Price (the woman to big ears and small nose) who was quite anxious to let his Owen to get into the good grace of his fellow prisoners. So he cannot keep a Peace.
Stand at Savannah, he is a dashing Colonel now.

Peck & N. Cuttler have done gone out, committed secessions, and settled down in a house of their own, under their own load and fig tree.

The former is a doctor and Ed. I suppose a stationer.

I have seen some time since congratulating him upon the second event of his illustrious life, but have heard nothing from him since. Think his mind is taken up with love in a cottage and has not time to write his friends. Received a letter from Pearson, he is going his mind agricultural society. Have you heard from Maj. Willis? And has he remitted to you;

and is he at Frederick? Have I should like to hear from him about twenty dollars worth. Please inform me in relation to Maj. W. in your next.

There is nothing one of importance in this vicinity, all quiet along the Potomac. Please remember our Kindly to the Brown family, and until again, your sincerely,
