

Dear Sir

Philadelphia July 24 1781

184

I rec. Yours of the 9th instant inclosing the resolve of Court concerning your bills exch^g and which I find require two months notice. In compliance with this resolve, I now notify that I shall draw for one hundred pounds lawfull money to be paid in two months from the moment you receive this letter. This I take to be legal notice: So I must live on borrowing, or nobody knows how, for I have not 40 dol lers clear at this time. I shall use frugality; and expect to render account: but I cant live here without considerable sums for clothing for myself & servant which the state must advance, let it be toward my pay. I have a son with me not at the expence of the state.

I am glad ^{of} the papers from Vermont. That dispute is in agitation & I hope will soon be ended. York delegates not arrived. Your commissions are sent forward.

Your most obed^t servant Sam Liversmore Hon. David Wells

Genl. Sullivan will be home I expect pretty soon.
I am preparing a set of journals for the state.
I wish Mr Gilman may set out immediately as it will be inconvenient for me to be here alone.

Yours as before S
