Capt Torrey has an Estate in Nova-Scotia Government (I think its at Cape Pursue) which he is inclined to dispose of He waits on the Committee to ask leave to go there, in the Vesul which brought up the Frenchmen, of which he tells me will sail in a few days — For my part I can foresee no ill consequences which can attend the granting his request, and if you agree with me in Sentiment, I beg you will do him what service may lie in your Power I am with due esteem

Your most hble Servant
Geo: King
