

1775 February 5.

Londonderry May the 5: 1775 ¹⁰⁹#

Sir these are to Inform you that at a meeting of the Inhabitants of this Town this Day was unanimously Chosen Con^l Matthew Shornton and J^{rs} James Macgregore as Delegates to Represent Said Town in the Provinciall Congress to be held at Exeter the 17th Day of this Instant and that the afore said Deputies are Impowered to act in Behalf of themselves and thier Constituents for Six months if they should Judge the Same Necessary and adjourn as occasion may Require attest. John Bell Town Clerk

To the Honourable John Wentworth
Chairman of the Provinciall Congress

Londonderry May the 5: 1775

Sir these are To Inform you that at a meeting of the Inhabitants of this Town this Daw was unanimously Chosen Con^{ll} Matthew Thornton and [Ins] James [magregore] as Delegates to Represent Said Town in the Proventiall Congress to be held at Exeter The 17th Day of this Instant and that the afore said Deputies are Impowered to act in Behalf of themselves and their Constituents for Six months if they should judge the Same Necessary and adjourn as occasion may Require

[allesh] John Bell Town Clerk

To the Honourable John Wentworth
Chair of the Provintiall Congress

London Dec 17

To the Honorable the Speaker of the House of Commons

[Faint, mostly illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

Londonderry