A Number of Soldiers in Col. Ashley's Col. Hales and my Regiment being Enlisted for the Continental Service, and no direction given concerning their Marching nor any Provision made, is the reason of M^r. Frolle now going to Exeter for direction, and pray Your Hon^{rs} particular Instruction as the Persons Enlisted having no Officer appointed to take any Care of them, it is feared sundry persons Enlisted having rec^d. their County will Run-away, would also hint to Y^r. Hon^{rs} if those Recruits are to March to Pecks Kill they are 100 Miles Nearer ^{now} then when at Exeter Y^r. Hon^{rs}. H^{on}. Serv^t
