

From President Washington

Circular,

Philadelphia April 26. 1791

104
100

Sir,

The united States in Congress assembled, deeming it proper & necessary to communicate to their constituents in the several States, as fully as can be done a proper Representation of their national Affairs, the Amount of the public Debts due from the United States, together with the Estimates for the current Year, having examined & agreed to the Report of their Committee on that Subject of the 18th Instant, I do myself the Honor to transmit you a Copy thereof And am with the highest Respect

Your most obedient

Humble Servant

Sam. Huntington President

The Honorable
President Weare

