

Summary of the State of the Old Emissions, May 3<sup>d</sup> 1732.

New Hampshire	Quota to be sunk	5,200,000
	Already destroyed by Return	2,299,769
	Wanting to complete the quota	2,900,231
Massachusetts Bay	Quota to be sunk	29,900,000
	Already destroyed by Return	12,934,637
	Preparing to be destroyed	16,398,363
	Wanting to complete the quota	16,950
Rhode Island	Quota to be sunk	2,600,000
	In the hands of the Loan Officer by his last Return to be transmitted	2,600,000
Connecticut	Quota to be sunk	22,100,000
	None transmitted, and no Returns
New York	Quota to be sunk	9,750,000
	Already destroyed by Return	599,340
	Preparing to be destroyed, supposed	1,378,314
	Wanting to complete the quota	7,771,790
New Jersey	Quota to be sunk	11,700,000
	Already destroyed by Return	6,334,325
	Wanting to complete the quota	5,365,675
Pennsylvania	Quota to be sunk	29,900,000
	Already destroyed by Return	10,431,245
	In the hands of the Loan Officer	11,272,164
	In the hands of the State Treasurer said to be about 500,000 Mill; say	5,000,000
	Wanting to complete the quota	3,196,591
Delaware	Quota to be sunk	2,210,000
	Preparing to be destroyed, supposed	2,264,561
	Sunk more than the quota	54,561
Maryland	Quota to be sunk	20,540,000
	Already destroyed by Returns	115,116
	In the Loan Office to be transmitted	6,793,346
	Wanting to complete the quota	13,631,538
Virginia	Quota to be sunk	32,500,000
	Already destroyed by Return	908,150
	In the hands of the Loan Officer by his last Return to be transmitted	5,776,400
	Wanting to complete the quota	25,815,450
North Carolina	Quota to be sunk	13,000,000
	None transmitted and no Returns
South Carolina	Quota to be sunk	15,600,000
	Already destroyed by Returns	221,387
	Wanting to complete the quota	15,378,613

This is the most exact state that can be made from the books, files in the Register's Office, but it may be still very imperfect because several of the Loan Officers have made no Returns for a long time back & therefore take no notice of the Old Emissions.