Exmouth March 23. 1780

Recd yours of G. Nichol, and agreeable to your desire have got the British from Capt.
 Wonsley, Below you have the articles now sent the Gen. which will safe to hand, hope you will be able to bring down Cash. — to pay Mr Grown for my Batts, &c. the Battsory cost 24. and more We have no arrivals, how there is arrivd sent into Boston by the Dear Sigate with Five hundred 2d Rums. as they say, I have now to acquaint you with the sudden surprising death of Mr David Grogg's Widow. she was taken with a fit as supposed about Seven o'clock the Last evening in the street was carried into her Brother Bowles and there died about Ten o'clock, may god sanctify this alarming Providence. I mean to communicate this to the Deacon and his Wife. but not suddenly Least you surprise her.

I am

Yours friend & Amator
