

Found a lock of my hair perhaps mother would like to see it

Camp Near Lowell Edward Co. May 2nd / 48 Sowell

Dear Friends:

I sent you a letter this morning supposing Joseph would not get his furlough for the present, but the furlough came to-day he starts to-night tomorrow morning at 4 o'clock, so I sit down by the light of a candle a bayonet used for a candle stick & will try write you something although I have not much to write.

It is a lovely evening just such a follows a warm calm planting day in May. It is most for pleasant to stay in the tents and the officers and men are in squads about the camp ground, discussing the latest war news

PAGE 1

Camp Near Lowell Girard Co. May 9th/63
Lowell

Dear Friends:

I sent you a letter this morning supposing Joseph would not get his furlough for the present, but the furlough came to-day he starts to-morrow morning at 6 AM. so I sit down by the light of a candle a bayonet used for a candle stick & will try write you something although I have not much to write.

It is a lovely evening just such a follows a warm corn planting day in May. It is most too pleasant to stay in the tents and the officers and men are in squads about the camp ground discussing the latest war news talking & singing. The band has just been playing several enthralling tunes. The all absorbing topic of conversation is the army of the Kappahannock rumors are rife that Hooker has fallen back across the Kappa - for supplies & reinforcements.

Tell you the suspense and anxiety is hard to be borne when the papers come out each it is one grand stupor for the papers them. We have no papers to-day & so we must rest another night without news. I suppose you have all sorts of rumors in the Boston papers about the army under ~~Hooker~~ Hooker just as you did when we were there. We shall feel very much disheartened if Hooker

PAGE 2

talking & singing. The band has just been playing several enlivening tunes. The all absorbing topic of conversation is the army of the Rappahannock rumors are rife that Hooker has fallen back across the Rappa___ for supplies & reinforcements.

I tell you the suspense and anxiety is hard to be born when the papers come into camp it is one grand stampede for the them. We have no papers to-day & so we must rest another night without news. I suppose you have all sorts of rumors in the Boston papers about the army under Hooker just as you did when we were there. We shall feel very much disheartened if Hooker defeated, but I shall not despair this rebellion must & certainly will be put down as Henry Clay said we will in regard to the war with England "We will fight them as long as there is a man gun or a man to use it"

The copperheads are getting to be pretty saussy in the North
"Old Burny" <sup>for</sup> enough Kalandingham and his crew. The traitors at the north can get no support from the army. the soldiers are almost entirely confident of success & are bitterly opposed to secess north & south. I have heard hundreds of soldiers say they would shoot a secess in the north as <sup>soon</sup> in the south.

We sent our overcoats home by express The Hillsboro boys bth. was defeated, but I shall not despair this rebellion must & certainly will be put down as Henry Clay said in regard to the war with England "We will fight them as long as there is a gun or a man to use it"

PAGE 3

The copperheads are getting to be pretty sausy in the North "Old Burnsy" is enough for Valandingham and his crew The traitors at the north can get no support from the army. the soldieries are almost entirely confident of success & are bitterly opposed to secech north & south. I have heard hundreds of soldiers say they would shoot a secesh in the north as soon in the south.

We sent our overcoats home by express The Hillsboro boys bbl. was directed to Dickey I don't know as they will ever get home but if they do please pay express & take my coat it is marked my name in the lining I want father to send me a pair of light slippers they will be so nice to wear in camp.

I want a silk handkerchief Please have send a package of envelopes and a quire of paper (I can't think what to write for we have just heard the news that Hooker is all right & ~~that~~ the boys have stopped singing "Old Aunt Leang Lyng" & are cheering for Hooker. The boys in our Co. are running to this tent inquiring when you go & bringing letters & bundles.) I want a pair of socks those army army socks I left at home would be the best but some patches on the heels if you have not them send a thin pair that will be easy to the feet. I send my old letters home. Please write a long letter I'll rather to write a letter directed to Dickey I don't know as they will ever get home but if they do please pay expenses & take my coat it is marked my name in the lining I want father to send me a pair of light slippers they will be so nice to wear in camp.

PAGE 4

I want a silk handkerchief please have send a package of envelopes and a quire of paper (I can't think what to write for we have just heard the news that Hooker is all right, the boys have stopped singing Old Auld Lang Syng & are cheering for Hooker. The boys in our Co. are running to this tent inquiring when Joe. goes & bringing letters & bundles.) I want a pair of socks those army socks I left at home would be the best put some patches on the heels if you have not them send a thin pair that will be easy to the feet. I send my old letters home. Please write a long letter Tell father to write a letter

I send a lock of my hair perhaps Mother would like to see it