

Camp near the city of Covington
Aug 25th 1843

Dear Brother:

I sent you a letter yesterday supposing before this I should be on my way south, but here we yet remain. Yesterday I learned that we should not move till this forenoon certain so I stole away went to Cincinnati got my pictures one of which I send in this. After reading yesterday's letter if you receive this it will a little surprise you ^{for} when I finished the letter I had no idea of going. You can see by this how uncertain is everything in the army. There is no one calculating here in the ~~army~~ army about what we shall do where we shall be &c.

I suppose the all absorbing topic of conversation in Mass. especially in

PAGE 1

Camp near the city of Covington
Aug 25th 1863

Dear Brother:

I sent you a letter yesterday supposing before this I should be on my way south, but here we yet remain

Yesterday I learned that we should not move till this forenoon certain so I stole away went to Cincinnati got my pictures one of which I send in this. After reading yesterdays letter if you receive this it will a little suprise you for when I finished the letter I had no idea of going. You can see by this how uncertain is everything in the army. There is no use calculating here in the army about what we shall be where we shall be &c.

I suppose the all absorbing topic of conversation in Mass, especially in

N^o 6 at the present time is the draft and the drafted. One Captain two Lieutenants and five noncommissioned officers from the 11th start for Concord to-day or to-morrow to escort two conscripts or to fill up the ranks of the 11th. Those that come in the 11th now Col. Harrison is recommissioned will be lucky. I have seen no regiment of infantry in the service I would as soon be in as in the 11th N^o 6.

I've not written me anything about who was drafted in Boston I saw some names in the paper but in the district where I was not acquainted.

I suppose the drafted ones think it pretty hard or a great many of them but it is strange that men who consider themselves good Republicans good citizens & honest men, look only on one side of this question all self it is only in regard to themselves their families they think about

PAGE 2

NH at the present time is the draft and the drafted. One Captain two Lieutenants and six noncommissioned officers from the 11th start for Concord to-day or to-morrow to escort 200 conscripts on to fill up the ranks of the 11th. Those that come in the 11th now Col. Harriman is recommissioned will be lucky. I have seen no regiment of infantry in the service I would as soon be in as in the 11th NH.

You haven't written me anything about who was drafted in Boston I saw some names in the paper but in the district where I was not acquainted.

I suppose the drafted ones think it pretty hard or a great many of them but it is strange that men who consider themselves good Republicans good citizens & honest men, look only in one side of this question all self it is only in regard to themselves their families they think about not even a thought for their country They seem to think that they have a perfect right to enjoy all the privileges of our free country but government has no right to ask them to give their services or money to maintain it. I don't help to hang upon a republican who holds back now as almost as bad as a opperhead for the opperhead is constant in one sense while he is prot.

It almost makes my blood boil with indignation to read such speeches as Frank Pierce made at C. & such papers at the Manchester Union

History will put the proper brand on our such men. I expect to hear of some little resistance in some towns in N.H. but Gov. Silsbee will be prepared for them. Tell William Johnson to write to me. How did you find the democrats in Hills. What is West Taylor's opinion of the constitutionality of the draft. Please write me how Elias and the wrong republicans like the draft

PAGE 3

not even a thought for their country They seem to think that they have a perfect right to enjoy all the privilage of our free country but government has no right to ask them to give their services or money to sustain it. I can't help looking upon a republican who holds back now as almost as bad as a copperhead for the copperhead is consistant in one sense while he is not.

It almost makes my blood boil with indignation to read such speeches as Frank Pierce made at C. & such papers at the Manchester Union.

History will put the proper brand on such men. I expect to hear of some little resistance in some towns in NH but Gov Gilmore will be prepared for them. Tell William Johnson to write to me. How did you find the democrats in Hills. What is Not Taylor's opinion of the unconstitutionality of the draft. Please write me how Silas and the many republicans like the draft you seem to ^{wish} ~~think~~ the $300 clause was not in the bill now I have thought that the best part of it It regulates the price of substitutes and gives the man of moderate means a chance ~~with~~ with the rich man

Please write me all the news as soon as you get this

From your affectionate Brother

W. J. Ampleton

PAGE 4

you seem to wish the $300 clause was not in the bill now I have thought that the best part of it It regulates the price of substitutes and gives the man of moderate means a chance with the rich man

Please write me all the news as soon as you get this

From your affectionate Brother
W.J. Templeton