Dear Friends:

At last

we find ourselves in Covington Ky. after a hard march of two hundred ^{& forty} miles thirteen days ago we left Morristown & eleven days previous to last Friday we marched 15 or 20 miles per day during rain storms & snow storms & any quantity of mud I took a severe cold on the march sleeping in the open air during cold rain storms but I kept on day after day till Friday while in camp at Nichols -ville it rained all day & night I got wet through & through my socks pants & drawers were nothing but rags & holes in short the only article of of clothing I had of any value was my overcoat which I was obliged to wear at all times to conceal the rags I tell you it took a good deal of ~~hot coffee~~ ^{hot coffee} & exercise to keep the shills off but I got rid of my old & with the aid of Uncle Sam & the contents of my box I have done a new suit from top to toe & now feel as big as any body. I got my box in a good time but it makes me mad to think how I have suffered for the want of every article in my box but the things will do me much good yet I can now keep comfortable on my long & cold ride to Annapolis I have had no sleep for two nights night before last it rained so one could ~~not~~ sleep & last night we were too crowded in the cars to sleep.

Do please you have directed my letter to to D. I should get them the same, but more of want you to direct (Mr. Smith)

We expect to lay here to-day & I hope to get a good night's sleep to-night You notice I can't write well for my right thumb, it's so & I am obliged to hold my pen with two fingers

Baltimore Md. Apr. 7th 1864

I was interrupted as you see last Sunday morning and now finish this letter many miles from where I commenced it Just as I wrote the last sentence orders came to load the teams and march to the Little Manna R R depot. We got to the depot at 1 pm & started east at 8 arrived here last night at 6 in the evening We are now waiting transportation on boats to Annapolis on for fear to write me on really diminished or else my friends Nerve another letter Mark's name made I will write you an account of our journey over the mountains & by rail from Cincinnati as soon as I can get time

My drawers socks & shirts are just a fit and you can't imagine how much good they are doing me We know how to appreciate good warm clothes after being deprived of them so long I want you should make me another pr of drawers not any thicker than these I don't like coarse & stiff cloth for drawers & one pr of socks

Will write you when & where to send them, next time

We expect to go on an expedition — probably to — I don't know where & I guess newspapers don't Hav'n't heard from home for more than two months don't know as I shall ever
