Sweet Sweetheart,

All's well with Jim and myself and the sun is shining outdoors. We'll be going out for a walk in a few minutes and the day's marketing. No mail from you this morning but yesterday's letter of Dec. 6th was full of cheerful news. No packages as yet from you and I hope you received some of the goodies we sent but sending out 2 more parcels today with candy, salmon, sardines, lock and keys, pencil & maps.

Received a wedding invitation from Harry Lubatkin and I'll send him a congratulatory card. Does he know you're in France? Have you received any bills as yet? If you'll need more, just write.

Jim and I love you very dearly so just don't worry and try to hurry home. The mess seems endless and I hope the New Year has lots of good things in store. I'll see you with devotion as always.
Love, Florence
