Dearest sweetheart,

Baby and I are really feeling swell and are now on the way to Brooklyn against we're getting to be commutes as well as return travelers and we don't mind it a bit. There's a slight drizzle out and the roads are good for traveling today. I wrote you a letter last night and forgot to forward it over so it may seem a bit awkward in places because we had company with plenty of gabbing. Bless that man well and she's a damn good egg so try to write to her, and how a little to her how me. % J. Howard Sabett Lake. Monticello, my expect to go back to her again in the Spring and that's not too far off. Hope to call your folks when I get to Brooklyn. Mom and Eleanor are meeting us and we'll be together tonight to see the New Year in. Let's hope we'll all have a very happy New Year, with all our wishes could come. Baby and I love you as my dearly and you're in my thoughts always. Just arrived at N.Y.C. and everything was just the way I
