Happy
New Year,
SWEETHEART

As New Year's comes again, Sweetheart,

*My thoughts are all of you,
Of all your love has meant to me,
Of all it will mean, too;*

And, Sweetheart, I am hoping
That you'll understand, some way,
The deep, unchanging love for you
That's in my heart today.
