Thursday -

Dearest sweet heart,

Jim and I are fine these days and just a little impatient for our dearest Daddy to sail again today and I have a feeling that's due to some things on in your outfit. Am I right? After a busy week-end, I'm relaxed again. Had mail from the Whitmans and all is the same as usual with them. Helen sent a card from Lancaster City and feels lots better. The folks are well and had no mail from you.

Hope to Allan about the car and it'll be running in a few days. Jim and I were out down most of the day, near the kinder courts. There is plenty of meat and stores for Jim to play with to his heart's content. I love you and miss you more and more every day but the lad is very dear and when will I see our baby. Love to Dad from Jim and Harv.
