MONDAY - 3/12

Charge, sweetheart, Hope this finds you very well and in good spirits. Jim and I are fine, the folks are well and all is quiet on the home front. We're hoping for an early finish and your homecoming soon and miss you so damn much. No mail at all today so I'm looking forward to to-morrow's delivery and better luck. Spoke to the folks, Mrs. Pittman, Jules and Ruth Gilbert to-day. All send their love to you. Mr. Pinous sold the house & Pittman had wrote you about it. He brought us some Am. Bonds Weather was nasty out so we stayed indoors, Lawrence was here all afternoon while Betty did some shopping and both kids had lots of fun sleeping together. I played, too.
Loving you so much is keeping my spirit high and my patience enduring. Jim and I send you all our affection and love always.

As ever,
Florence
