

Jan. 25th, 1943

Dear George,

Well, things have changed - just as I expected. My furlough has undergone a slight change.
Don't get scared, it's just a question of a few days.

I now definitely leave on Feb. 1st. This has one advantage, as I'll get paid before going on furlough.

It's awfully hot down
here, and today was mean.
So please forgive this brief letter.

Regards to Flo & Jim -

As Ever - Bob
