SEE INSTRUCTION NO. 2

Large, dearest,

Wednesday

We're just first and dandy and luckily we came up just in time from the hot city. It's quite summery, the country so lovely, the hotel is almost completely arranged and Jim loves the house and Jack near the hotel. Hope you're in good spirits and as optimistic as you're trying to make me in all your recent letters.

No mail to-day but that's because of the change of address. We stayed in most of the day because it was cooler in the hotel but Jim left today in and out of the place. To-night Eleanor and I are going to the movies to see "Spring on the Hills". Will write you about it tomorrow. Max will stay with Jim and listen to the radio in the evening.

As always, I'll love you with all my heart. Say well, darling, and remember this is still our place. Hug, fond hugs from Jimmie.

Springer,
 Florence
