

Monday eve -

Dec 10th 1944.

Dearest George,

Just spoke to your father and he was so elated when I read that letter of recommendation which you forwarded to me in to day's letter. It's a grand letter and makes me so proud that your efforts even in the army are appreciated. You are a wonderful person, my darling, and you can't blame me at times when I complain that I don't see enough of you (that was in civilian life). I feel very selfish about you and want you to myself every moment - that may be the result of love (things do work the opposite with me, you know) I love you very much, sweetheart, and this separation makes me realize how strongly we love one another.

Baby and I are feeling swell, especially after yesterday's call and the weather has turned a bit warmer. We managed to

He out most of the afternoon, did some shopping and then had a grand time with those letters you sent, under separate covers. Jimmie grabbed each envelope as I was reading each letter and scampered around the room. He's so devilish and what a good natured teal he's turning out to be. Some of those letters are swell but I can't read Larry's.
I'll read some more to-night.

What a popular husband you've become since you've away I love you so

That man who sold the vacuum parts to me returned my check - the "jerk" didn't endorse it properly so I'm sending him another one to-night. I'll leave the old record in the book as is and deduct it from last month's record.
Otherwise all is in order, bonds were bought and garage bill I'll pay next week.

Received a short letter from Bob and wrote him quite a long letter yesterday. I realize he's busy so I keep waiting all the news and how everyone is on the home front. Spoke to Mrs. Pinus today

He had a cold over the week-end.
I gave him your new-address.
Pers called today and it's now-definite that Kay is to be inducted on the 26th of Jan.
She's got that colitis trouble again, was to the doctor, and has to be on a strict diet of potatoes, rice, puddings, custards and other mush. I think she has to cure herself and not worry too much. Perhaps I'll make some arrangement with her but as yet I haven't mentioned a word about it. It's grand living alone with Jimmie and many concessions will have to be made.

But we'll see what's up after Hy gets that final notice.

While out today I got a bottle of Marsala wine and also 1 qt. of Schenley blended whiskey.
The wine was $1.00 - Schen. $3.85.

Charlie is treating me swell and I can't ask for too much. Pop would like some liquor but at present I'll not bother Charlie for more.

Birdie is feeling much better and looks happier too and Elsie is very sweet looking.

Don't forget to send Lanny a card on the 13th of Jan - forget it - I'll take care of it and also the gift.

I may get him a popular book in Wormrath's if I can't get to the city for something else.

He returned the towels yesterday and got a kick out of baby. On enclosing $1.00 and am sending this air-mail.

Until to-morrow then, my darling George, I'll say good-night with that same old love and adoration I'll always have for you.

Also a great big scissor hug and kiss - also a special kiss from our precious babe.

Loveingly,
Florence
