George, dearest,

After making your letter, Bloss and Jan said us a visit. We're all well and my mom called from the city to say that all is under control. The weather isn't too nice and we've had intermittent rain all day. We went to the Monticello library and took out a book for Jim and "Inside Asia" for me. We'll be getting a phone here in a few days and to my being an army wife. It sure has its advantages huh! Hope you're fine and please don't worry. You really are good-looking in those snapshots.

To-morrow is Thelma's anniversary so I'll not forget to send a card - and also due to the fact before the 30th. Don't forgetting the gift and flowers. There's so much static in the air to-night that it's difficult to hear the fragrance clearly. Jim's asleep and I'll be going to bed soon. Stay well and cheer up. All my love and devotion to you. Kisses from Jim

Sincerely,
Thelma

George dearest,

After mailing your letter, Ben and Jen paid us a visit. We've been? Well and my mom called from the city to say that all is under control. The weather isn't too nice and we've had intermittent rain all day. We went to the Monticello library and took out a book for Jim and "Inside Asia" for me. We'll be getting a phone here in a few days due to my being an army wife. It sure has its advantages huh! Hope you are fine and please don't worry. You really are good-working on steal roads

To-morrow is Thelmas anniversary so I'll not forget to send a card – and also one to the folks before the 29th. I'm not forgetting the gift and flowers. There's so much stress in [the air its] it's difficult to hear the [guidance] Clearly. Jim's already asleep and I'll be going to be soon. Stay well and chin up. All my love and devotion to you. Kisses from Jim.

Lovingly, Florence
