Tuesday eve

Large, my darling, Jim and I have you more and more and hope you're as cheerful as we are since V-E day. To-night at 7 p.m. the sun finally came out and it looks like a fair day for to-morrow.

Received your May 25th letter with more snapshots and thanks sweetheart. That snap of your getting a haircut is a beauty and whoever sees it gets a kick out of it. You look fine and I do hope you're feeling that way too. Try not to get too homesick - stamps forget. Ask to all the folks and everything is under control. Jimmie is a swell baby and is understanding more of life each day. We get along swell and wish you'd hurry home to make the happiest two is.

All our love, admiration and affection to you, darling Always,
 Florence
