Dearest, sweetheart:

Did not return to my billets from Ahlen and Hagen until about 10 this evening, but I was delighted to find that the day has once again brought mail from my pretty wife and fantastic pin-up girl. Your V-Mail letters dated May 23rd, 25th and 28th arrived, as well as a letter from Bob, Nancy, Sharon and my Belgian friends.

I'm too fatigued to do justice to a regular letter so please forgive my lapse in literary efforts. I gather from your letters that all goes well at home, knowing that your next few months will be spent in the country pleases me no end. Your matters and special deals reminds me of the small business partners you made and always have been. Sure hope the replacements for the sold articles meet with your approval. You can also believe me when I say I am most anxious to try them out - but soon.

Hope you and Jim are in excellent health and spirits. I'm fine and dandy, and ever so pleased that the special letter writing is being continued. Don't stop until we get the announcement we await so patiently. Will write at length to - mamas, love and kisses to you and Jim, and my love to everyone,

As ever,

George
