

Dearest beloved,

Tuesday morning,
9.30 of 12.30
April 11th

Baby and I are just fine and dandy. It turned a bit chilly again and last night I had cold feet and no George to warm me. But soon you'll be doing that and I'm trying so hard not to be too excited while I'm here.

My fingers are getting numb while writing, I'm out at the porch again with you and Jimmie, so I'll finish this indoors, when it's nice and warm and so comfy. Jimmie's cheeks are like two red apples and he's having a wonderful time running around in so much space. Now he's learning how to climb stairs (with help)

Bess cooked the most delicious chicken dinner yesterday and we all enjoyed it so much. Jimmie couldn't eat the stuff fast enough and will probably become the youngest epicure in the United States. Jan doesn't do too badly either and has a very chubby face and what an appetite for milk and water. They still play so nicely together and are quite affectionate.

We drove into town again yesterday afternoon, did more shopping and treated ourselves and the babies to ice-cream with marshmallows and fudge. It was almost 5 o'clock when we returned and then the babies were fed and put to bed early. We had the evening for ourselves and later on Bess was called down to join a game of hearts with the people downstairs. Elvora and I wrote letters and cards, took hot baths, listened to the radio and turned in early. I wrote to the folks, Bob, Puhels, Lieber, Sherrins, Betty Rosen and Thelma.

Betty forwarded your Wednesday and Thursday letters plus the new actual cash value from Eddies and wife. I'll attach the letters to the reply when I arrive home. Darling, when I read that you would like us to come out by the 20th or 27th my heart just started to beat away furiously and I couldn't see straight because of so much inner happiness. I'm going to try my hardest to be out by the 20th and only have about three days to get everything in order. Rex insists that I stay here until Sunday and I really do need the rest and whatever relaxation I can get.
If I do make it, I'll send a telegram the day before I leave and in the meantime please try to get together or borrow a high-chair, crib and carriage. Remember we have a feeding carriage but taking it means a little extra trouble so let me know as soon as you can how you're making out. I'm allowed 150 lbs. on my ticket so I'll try to take only what's necessary and if there's a little extra weight the charge is very nominal. I'll insure the luggage too.
Mr. Pinous will be given the job of procuring the tickets. I'll call him Sunday or Monday. Will also take care of car and my fur coat. By now you must have received the letter which I acknowledged the E.L. Club.
Also, dearest, please show me on Sunday evening if convenient to you. I'll try to have your folks there at the time.

I still love you so very dearly and my fingers are staying crossed until I kiss you again. All my love and devotion to you and a kiss and hug from precious Jimmie. Best regards from Ellen and Bessie.

Always yours

P.S. Do take an A.P. at Chain street in the town?
