

Monday

Dear George,

Enclosed find check for $20. This takes care of two weeks. I still don't know how I'm going to pay the dentist bill. I also owe $5 to Pop. Something has to be worked out so that I can pay him off. I don't want to owe him or anyone else any money; until I really have to. So perhaps we can get together on a plan whereby I can reconcile myself to this bill.

I don't know whether Pop has spoken to you about the discourse I had with him this past Sunday. In any event, I would like very much to have a long talk with you about the same topic.

Sunday was one of the few times that Pop and I had a man to man talk, and it really was swell. He really knows what he's talking about. I suppose if Pop hasn't talked to you about it, that you do have an idea what it is all about. That's right, this girl that I am going with.

It would be futile for me to write you all about it. I could make myself more coherent if we were to discuss this whole thing. I don't have to tell you how much I count on your opinion. It will influence me a great deal; only I ask you to be more practical than idealistic. By this I refer to your telling me that it is just as easy to love a rich girl as it is to love a poor one. This is good in theory; but theory seem s to disregard emotions a little.

I suppose the above nonsense would indicate that I am trying to make you prejudiced; but this isn't what I am trying to do. I would only like to feel that we discuss this particular problem without being biased one way or the other before we start. I know that I can count on you for just that.

Hoping that everything is going well with you and Florence.

With a handshake in mind,

BoB.
