Dearst George,

Well you're fine and dandy and out of all danger. Jimmie and I all just swell and had a nice Sunday with your folks and my family. This morning Harry's wife Be called and is anxious for us to visit her and the baby and give her regards to your weather was nice in the morning but got very windy after noon. Mom and Pop came here today and we had a tea party with Jim and Jack and the rest of the family and had all afternoon had supper with Eleanor and breakfast here with Betty this morning so I'm not alone.

I read last night too much about us, darling and just take good care of yourself for the diversion and well of us. Baby and I may go to the country to visit Pass real soon and hope we have nice weather and a good rest. Boy now you must have had letters of mail from home and friends just keep on writing and having up with what have you.

Jim and I miss you all the time and are impatiently awaiting the return of our beloved sweetheart and buddies. Love - night and all my love and affection to you. A kiss from Jimmie
George
