Wednesday eve -

George, my darling,

All goes well in our domain, you is fine and I'm getting myself all prepared for the end of the war and you. Be patient a little longer and we'll be in each other's arms forever and ever. You know how much I love you and adore of you constantly. How very lucky I am.

Last night, Winnie, Betty and Ray joined me and visited Thelma. We had a pleasant evening. Thelma is lots better and we visited home at N. Leggy watched Jim until my return. This morn. there was no mail from you but the folks had mail, plus a snapshot which they like so much. The folks are well.

It was quite cold and windy out but you and I had a fresh air during the day. Charlie kept me company this evening and Betty joined me too. All my love and devotion to you, darling. Love from your
