Tuesday

My darling,

The heat is very strong so I'll dash off this letter before I go in for a swim.

How is it in the city? I can just see those beads on your lip.

This morning I wrote to Clever and gave her the low down on this place. If she must go away, any other place will offer her much more than Echo Lake Lodge - so if she calls you tell her I only wrote the truth. I also received your sweet message

And a very thoughtful letter from Min Lieber. Send her my (also Jules & Julia's) best regards - I don't think I'll write because it's much too warm.

Al just asked me if you could possibly get a cage in Baldsmiths for $2 or 2.50.
Bring it with you, if you buy it.
If not, don't bother about it at all - especially in this heat. Give all your strength for me.

Please convey ^{belated} congratulations to Mom and Pop on their anniversary. It was thoughtless of me not to remember. Too bad I couldn't be with you to celebrate.

Liesel mentioned something about Carl coming up for the week-end - ~~If~~ he calls you and ^{if} you have room for him - I understand he's a good driver. It would be a relief to me to know that you don't have to do that long stretch alone.

Have Sam & Kay received word yet? Let me know who's coming up with you.

I hope the apartment is nice and cool and that your comfortable part of the day.

Every time I think of your dinner dates - I'm a little envious - because those who invite ^{you} see you and talk to you and are near you while I'm so far away. But it won't be long now.

For the first time to day we took a short walk to the Hudson and its a sight to behold - with mountains all around and everything green in sight.

So, my love, just 72 more hours, and I'll be with you again.

Sincerely yours,
Florence

P.S. Did I mention slippers for the shower?
