My darling, Hope this finds you well, in good spirits and not worried about the feds at home. We're all fine and dandy and had a very nice Sunday at home.
 There was a heavy snowfall last night and most of today so we spent the day indoors. Jim and I had a little fun together now - that old rascal talks and he picks up all sorts of expressions and - well - cracks. Mom and Pop came here early this afternoon, brought us some candy and had an enjoyable day with Jimmie. My Mom joined us for and Jimmie was at his best behavior all day. We had a tea party, Jim helped me serve and clean up and a few calls came in from Bob, Sonny, Oscar and Helma. All is the same with them and nothing new at all. Well, write a longer letter tomorrow and I'll tell you the details. My devotion and love is for you and yours.
