Large, dearst,

Nothing new since this morning except several inches more of snow. Jim and I are fine and both you and Jim behaved very well all day long. In fact, I was able to bake a cake and some cups yesterday during the afternoon. Bird came out good and I wish I could send you samples.

I hope that Mom and Pop are not taking Dad's departure too hard this time but will let you know what's what when I return home. They've been two hours soldiers until now and I'll do all I can to cheer them while you and Dad are gone. Will call home as soon as I get back to Brooklyn. Tomorrow - how are

Bill and My Cent in on the last one and we talked for a few minutes. All is all same at home. Had a good night's rest and it's lovely out this morning. Park babies were out with me this morn. and the air smelled delicious. Will write in larger tonight - all my love and devotion to the sweetest of 'em. ^{Have you & keep from Jim}
