

Dec. 6th 1942

Dear Gg.

Have about 10 minutes before walking guard; but must give you
the following —

The new men are all from Georgia & Alabama, and see they ignorant. 2 of them yesterday, so help me, couldn't write their own names. They had to sign an x.
However, word has just gotten around that the latest batch to arrive has come in from Ft. Dix;
which is most heartening.

I must give you the latest joke around camp.

~~The~~ It seems an M.P.
found a nude man with no signs of identification on him at all.
But just antly he knew said man was a soldier. First, this part of

There is a certain degree of

in the world, and it is not

the following

to be considered as a

particular instance, and it is

important that the

self is not to be considered as a

particular instance, and it is

important that the

self is not to be

considered as a

particular instance, and it is

important that the

self is not to be

considered as a

particular instance, and it is

important that the

the story <sup>is</sup> told, and then the question usually asked is "How did he know he was a soldier?" The answer may not be funny to you; but it is to a doughboy.

"His ass was eaten out!"

With me

Bob

---

The first of these is the fact that the world is not a uniform whole, but is made up of many different parts, each of which has its own
character and history.

It is not possible to understand the world
as a whole, but only
by studying its
different parts.

There are many different kinds of people, and each
has its own
character and
history.

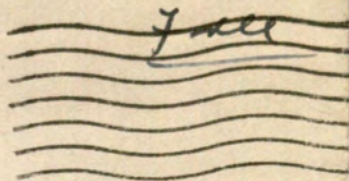

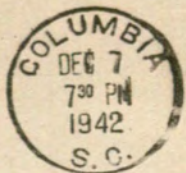

1901

—

S/8gt. Robt. Stoff

399 Inf. Co. 1 A.P.O. 100

FX. Jackson, S.C.

Mr. George Stoff
Room 1412
29 Broadway
New York City

