Portsmouth 23. Octo. 1778

The bearer Mr John Griffin waits on you with the petition of Cap<sup>t</sup> Frazer, to Obtain leave for tarrying in this place, his petition sets forth some undoubted facts - he is at present confined on board the flag, and very unwell, I carried Doct<sup>r</sup> Jackson on board to visit him, and he has given a certificate w<sup>ch</sup> Mr Griffin will also deliver - If he is not permitted to come on shore his wife is desirous of Obtaining leave to go on board to tend him - please to give me yr directions -

I am very respectfully
