

Thursday eve.

Dearest Sweet heart,

Our anniversary date is fast approaching and how I'd love to be with you on that special occasion. It's still so wonderful to love you and be loved by you that sometimes I pinch myself to make sure it's true that I have such a sweet and considerate husband. Six years of wedded bliss and never a dull moment - even now with you so far away. I really live for each letter so full of you and what's happening to you in camp and some of those stories sure give us all a great thrill back home.

Baby and I are very well and the weather to-day was again like Spring. Rain or snow was predicted last night and when I hear that news I usually send your letter regular mail. Your Monday letter arrived to-day and also a letter from cousin Seymour, who is quite homesick. I'll try to write to him and Bob again this week. Mom and Pop were here to see me last night and also brought the allotment check for $74.00. Do that for 2 months? They're both fine and also enjoy listening to ^{parts of} your letters which I read, especially those that have commendation letters enclosed. Your snapshot made a great hit with them and I assured them that they'll receive a likeness in the near future.

About your call, I didn't want to make an issue of the matter and I threatened them and Prof. that you won't call unless we pay the charges. They will not take the money even though I insisted and ^{they} said they'll wait until you're in on furlough. So please write to them and explain that it's not fair of them when you agreed that we'll pay the charges.

Ben Rosen brought me a pair of good bedroom slippers and a pair of patent leather shoes which I ordered, both $5.50 and no coupon. Betty and I are going shopping again to morrow eve and if there's time we'll see a movie. In the meantime, I got some pretty dyed material and Thelma and I managed to cut a very pretty dress from a pattern. Jimmie and Joel play nicely together but our son is learning the ropes - he gets what he wants, is quite daring, manages to be everywhere at one time and is quite a boy with his new haircut.
You should see him on the bicycle. With his blond hair, rosy cheeks and roguish laughter you'll be quite amazed and proud of your son. About those photos - the photographs came rather unexpectedly (1 day's notice) and I couldn't get my hair set properly. but I'll take others again soon. How is your gum healing?
Oceans of love to you, sweetest and a kiss from baby.
always, Florence
