Jan 28 - Sunday

Dearest George,

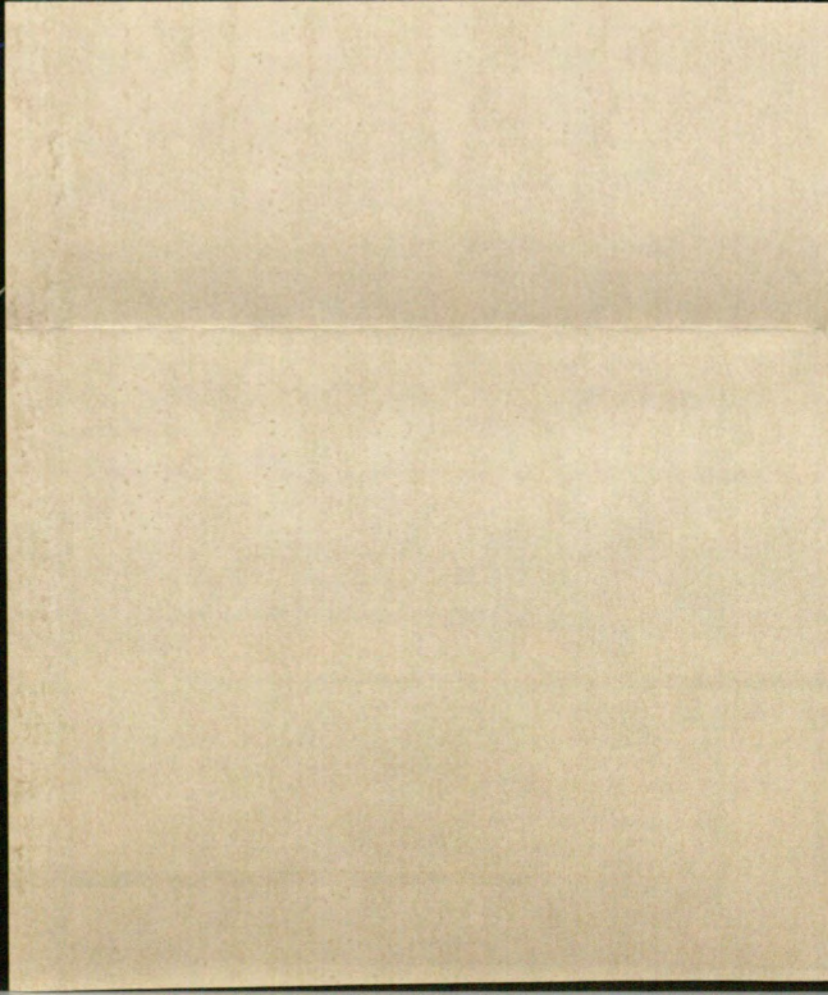

Jim and I are just fine and dandy, hope you're the same and all the family is well. Baby and I spent most of the day at my mother's and returned home in time for supper. We arose early, had our usual breakfast and were out by 12 o'clock. The weather was quite mild today, more like a spring day and it was a welcome change from the bitter cold all week. Helma, Eleanor, Mom, Cousin Bert, Sandra and a friend of Helma's were all at Mom's this afternoon and more cousins came toward evening. Jim was the attraction and certainly looked up sweet as honey today. He behaved, had nice manners and ate a good lunch and had a nap in the aft.

To night Mr. Pincus and Miss Lieber called me. All is well with both and their best regards to you. Stay well and I'll keep on loving you and dreaming of you every moment. Love and kisses from Jimmie and Sandra.
