Most beloved,
 Last night I wrote you a (regular) letter and enclosed a stock sheet in it. Yesterday I received your small letter of May 20 & 26. The pictures enclosed was good to look at. Jim and I are fine, the family is P. H. and your folks are well. The weather isn't too nice or warm but that'll change very shortly.

We haven't gone to the country yet because it's too cold but we may go this week. Jimmie is still opinion-and likes you in a helmet. He's sure proud of his daddy and misses you too. Last night I wrote a letter to Bob and Betty. Rover came in for a few hours to help me of the best regards to you. It seems as though you're in a nice place now, with not too much work and we'll have to be most patient there ever during this period of our separation. Just stay well, my dearest, and all will come to a good ending very soon. It'll be so damn good to see you again and that our lives will continue happily ever after. All my love is always and keeps and kisses from Jim and his Mommy.

Sincerely,
 George
