

Wednesday

Dear George,

Enclosed you will find check; rather small; but nevertheless, a check. Everything is the same as when I left.~~xx~~. The draft board is on a two week vacation, so nothing new has happened with me.

The boss is coming out here tomorrow, and is going to stay here overnight, so I guess he plans on making some changes. Personally, I hope that my transfer goes into effect this week.

I hope that your strange malady has left you. I think that you ought to see a doctor if it continues to bother you.

Probably see you this weekend. Hoping to be able to come in with the boss. My friend Louie is getting married this Saturday, and I would like to slip him a few bucks. So, I guess that there is no alternative but to hit the bank again. We were pals for a long time and I do think that he rates some kind of a gift. Oh well, that's life.

As ever,

Bob
