Heart

We always have such happy times
No matter what we do,
It isn't any wonder
That I think so much of you,
And so this special Valentine
Is sent to you today
Cause you're the kind of girl friend Who's just swell in every way!

with lots and lots of love kiddo - a lot has happened to us, we've been through a lot since that first New Year's Eve - but we've had (over)

~~Merry~~ Christmas

Happy
New Year

two burning desires, one to devote myself to God's service, the other to love you forever with trust and faith that nothing can destroy, and in doing so, to make you happy. These two desires are <sup>my</sup> goals for life, and no matter how rough the going gets, I shall always press forward to them. I thank you for this my darling. It is because of you, that I at last have something to look forward to. Only by fulfilling my goals, can I ever pay my debt to God and you. So even though we've been widely separated by my disloyalty, I believe that we're bound closer together than ever before. Next to God, I love you more than anything else there is. I pray that you ~~will~~ still want me. I must go now. I can't wait to see you. It'll be so wonderful. Until then, <sup>and forever</sup> I'm yours, x-xu-wah-wah! x-x-x-x-x

If love can make a wish

come true,

Love can play a part

In bringing you the happiness

I wish you from my heart,

Then surely you will have a year

That sees your dreams come true,
 All!

For well you know how lovingly

I wish these things for you.
