

Sir

January 31st 1781 ³⁸

I have just rec^d yours enclosing the vote of the Honourable Council & House. As the Court has done me the honour to appoint me a delegate I shall make a point of it to serve them to the utmost of my power.
I must consult Gen^l. Bellows as the vote allows but one of us at a time.

And I suppose it necessary for me to consult the gen^l. court upon the subject of Vermont before I go to Congress: so I shall wait on them at their next meeting unless any thing should turn up to require my going to Congress before the court meets. If I hear nothing farther you will meet me next at Amherst Court the last Tuesday of Feb. where we may consult farther.

I am Your most obed. Serv.
Samuel Livermore
