SEE INSTRUCTION NO. 2

Thursday

Dearest Beloved,

Another month is ended, the worst is over and above all we love each other so dearly. I know it's difficult to be patient at this part of the deal but what else can we do? We'll have to sit tight a little longer. Meanwhile we'll take care of ourselves and you, too.

All's fine at home, weather is grand but just a bit cool and we're in good spirits. Don't you worry about us and try not to get too homesick.
 I had no mail from you since Monday and I do hope that you're O. K. The folks had mail from Bob and he's fine. We're not leaving for the country yet but I'll advise you when I do. The case will be ready to-morrow and I'll let you know how the job looks.

Nothing new with us and Jimmie is still precious. They well, my love and we'll keep on loving you every minute of every hour. Kisses and hugs from your animal and I'll miss you and devotion. Sincerely, George Stoff
