

1775, Oct. 5

In Congress; Oct. 5th 1778. ^{9.} 116

Whereas it is represented by several commissioners of the continental loan offices, that they have received for loan office certificates & lottery tickets of the United States considerable sums in bills of credit emitted by States, who by acts of their respective legislatures have stopped the circulation of such bills;

Resolved, That it be recommended to the said States to direct their treasurers to receive such bills of credit from the said commissioners respectively, & deliver in exchange continental currency to the amount thereof; - the said commissioners declaring on oath, if required, that such bills were received by them in virtue of their office.
