Sunday eve -

Dearest sweetheart,

Am home again after a lovely trip and Jim and I are fine. Aunt Mildred and I went out in the morning, we took some snapshots. Left at 2 and arrived at 5:30 - safe and sound. All the Giff family met us at the door and Sam, Ray & Kate left us shortly after for a wedding. Mom and Pop are fine and were delighted to see Jim and me. We all had supper & looked and cleared the fat. Betty had quite a bit of mail for me, a v-mail from you dated March 20th and also Jim's birthday set mailed on Mar. 29th. Will write you a long letter to morrow. Found a telegram under the door dated March 27th for my birthday celebration. Thanks, my darling.

I'll take the pack home later in the forenoon then go to bed early. My Aunt will stay over night. All my love to you. Dearest and I shall take care of George. Love from Bill, Lulu and Helen from Jim. As always, I love you.

V-MAIL
