Friday

George, my darling,

Your little family is very well and we are all excited about going away to the country. Every thing is being put in order and I must forget to change my P.O. address before I leave. No mail to-day.

The folks are fine, still miss you and we'll probably see them over the week end. Weather is just grand and this morning I had Marcia here and managed to shop with both children while Foly had to do some thing downtown. After lunch and naps, Jim and I drove to the Zoo and on the way we stopped in to see Eleanor. She looks grand with a new hair comb.

I've enjoyed himself at the zoo and when we were there the lion just roared. We must have had a bellyache. In the eve I went to Schmans but had no luck. Also met Mildred & Nettie, old friends and one had a baby recently (Lulu's sister). I still love you with love & hope I shall see you soon. Miss and Miss from John.
 Love, I think and miss you always. Mary
