Friday eve.

George, dearest,

Jim and I are fine, miss you so much, and are hoping you're on your way back to us. Had no mail again to-day, that makes it 3 days in a row. The folks are well and I spoke to them to-day. Their love to you.

To-morrow we are going up to Monticello again to see Bea and the family - Jim, Eleanor, her boy friend George and me. I'll take it easy and George may drive for a spell. Expect to be home in a day or so.

Weather is grand and Jim has most of his clothes by now so is cool. It gets cold but we're prepared. Next week I'll take care of my things and later get a good overhauling.

All my love and devotion to you as always. Love and kisses from baby and we hope to see you soon, darling. Good night, dearest, and I love you so much. Stay well.

Always yours,
Florence
