OFFICE OF THE COMMANDING GENERAL
1ST AVENUE & 59TH STREET

BROOKLYN, N. Y.

January 5, 1944.

Dear George:

Lucky boy, you ought to first appreciate how lucky you really are that I am on duty to-night and so have the opportunity and the inclination to type a letter and have you break those lovely molars of yours in trying to decipher my heiroglyphics.

Seems that you are getting a bit of shoving around , don't think that I am smart if I say take it and try (I know that it is easy for me to say so) to take it in stride and laugh it off. From the rumors I am getting from Florence I understand that you might be shoving off for one of the places in the southland, well I hope not but keep a stiff upper lip. By the way how are those dogs shaping up or aren't they. Let's have the dope.

I speak to Florence quite often and all at home seems to be o.k. there isn't much news I missed the meeting last night and saw Sidney this afternoon and the only information that I gathered is herewith listed. Hold tight and don't lose yourself, by Nat Fox and Barney Steinthal were removed from the membership committee and in their places ~~by~~ Billy Rubel and don't get excited , take it calmly, there is nothing that you can do bu Joe Goldhammer was the other one. Looks like a campaign to get even with the Eidler Stoff team.

Well looks like I am going to knock off now so until the next letter stay well and try and be happy

As ever
