today but I <sup>2</sup> really didn't expect any after the 5 letters yesterday.
Did I mention that I received the good color brood and I'll take care of the hat? Commercial Traveler sent a notice for $7.50 which will be paid in June. Billy Rubel's birthday is today and I've already sent him a card yesterday from you, Mely and myself. He also called again today to tell me that he received a nice letter from you. The Shermans also got <sup>your</sup> letter and remarked what a good letter writer you are. Your friend Irving Shedberg called me today and conveyed your best to us. He may call me again before he leaves. Goke to the folks again today, they're well and had a nice letter from Bob, who <sup>writes</sup> ~~has~~ all about the beautiful country and scenery in Las Vegas. <sup>3</sup>

The weather was fairly nice today, cloudy in the morning but sunny and slightly breezy in the afternoon. We did get out after lunch and again spent the afternoon at Vandeweer Park. Baby just loves the wide, open spaces and I don't have to run after him too often. A woman, sitting near me, told me that her son was just sent to Italy and she had a slight case of the blues. I think she was Jewish and her boy was just 18. Jimmie managed to make her smile and she warmed up to him quickly.

Joel is still the same, still at the hospital and I'll try my best to see him to-morrow afternoon. Spoke to Eleanor, who's busy with a garden in back of the store and ~~it~~ looks ~~just~~ like we'll have vegetables this season. — Garden variety.

Bess left for the country on Saturday and I'll drop her a letter this week.

Did you have a nice time at that jinnie? Is it possible to have another photograph taken (for free) at some man. department store? Might as well tell it all in. I also found those "snaps" in the breakfast.

Good night, my darling and all the love that's in my heart. Keep well and remember, I love you dearly.
A hug and kiss from Jinnie.

As ever,
Florence
