Dearest Helmut,

What a day! Maxine was only coming over the air but when will we see you, darling?

All's well here and happiness is contagious. Your Aug. 3rd letter arrived today with a $5.00 money order. Thanks a million. Also received your $20.00 money order and a $40.00 remittance from the war department. Haven't received the bond for July but will write to War Finance tonight. Also mailed out a package to Frank Cordeman, your Belgium friend and insured it.

Weather is delightful and I hope will continue that way. Last night Helma came in and Maurice is expected to night (no 3 day pass).

Hope you don't mind this shortage after all these long, boring letters of mine. But so I have to continue writing these lousy letters.

I love you deeply and miss you terribly. Hugs and kisses from Jim and Max comes from the family.
