Sunday 3/5

Dearest beloved,

Today was a lovely day and the folks spent most of the afternoon and evening with us. Jim is fine, kept us all after him most of the day and in now fast asleep. We went outdoors early and stayed near the house until lunch time. Both of us napped in the afternoon and Mom and Pop came at 3.15. It was too late to go to the zoo so we wound up in an ice cream parlor on West End and Flatbush Aves. Then we went back to the apartment, listened to the very optimistic war news and had supper together. My aunt Mildred came later in the eve and we had coffee and cake together.

We're all fine and dandy and have some hope of seeing you soon. Stay well, dearest, and we'll take care of the home front.

Good night and I still love you with all my heart. Love from Jim and the folks.

Yours always,
Florence
