Dearest:

Several days ago I wrote Max Pincus to endeavor to locate someone who has friends or relations in Minneapolis, Minn. Please check with him on this, as I believe we are scheduled to go to Fort Snelling, Minn., which is in or close by Minneapolis. Since I expect to have you there it would be advisable to get a live on accommodations. Please remember this is all subject to change, and my information may be all wrong. Will write usual letter later in the day.

All my love,

As ever,

Gg.

P.S. In writing me until I arrive at next camp, please refrain from mentioning names of any camps, as some mail is being censored. Don't worry, everything is fine and dandy.
