

IN our old Camp Opposite Ford — Feb. 7th 1862

Today is warm & pleasant. We have just received orders (12 M) to be ready to march to the depot & take the <sup>cars</sup> at a moments notice. It is understood that we embark for Fortress Monroe at the Creek we are going down South somewhere & I am glad we are for I am sure we shan't get into much worse muddy hole than this. But for a rough guess would say we were going to Newburn N.C. under the command of Gen.
Burnside but of course I know nothing about it. We all seem to want to go somewhere & the

PAGE 1

In our old Camp Opposite Fred __ Feb. 7th 1863

To-day is warm & pleasant. We have just received orders (12 AM) to be ready to march to the depot & take the cars at a moments notice. It is understood that we embark for Fortriess Monroe at the Creek we are going down South somewhere & I am glad we are for I am sure we shan't get into much worse muddy hole than this. Just for a rough guess would say we were going to Newberne NC. under the command of Gen. Burnside but of course I know nothing about

We all seem to want to go somewhere & the boys seem pretty lively. I suppose before you get this we shall be at our destination.

I expect to be pretty sea sick I reckon there will be some pretty sick fellows among us but it will do us good.

as soon as you get this & ~~write~~ please write me just send me three or four better stamps I put the last on this. If I can manage any way to get a stamp will write again soon.

I received your & Anna's letter day before yesterday.

Alden's love runs

Write soon

W. J. Sumner

PAGE 2

boys seem pretty lively. I suppose before you get this we shall be at our destination I expect to be pretty sea sick I reckon there will be some pretty sick fellows among us but it will do us good.

as soon as you get this & Please write me just send me thre or four letter stamps I put the last on this. If I can manage any way to get a stamp will write again soon I received your & Anna's letters day before yesterday

Alden's box came

Write soon

W. J. Templeton