Dearest beloved -

Jim and I are feeling great here in the country and we've had some grand weather since Saturday. Hope you're safe and well, my darling, and that you're back us again soon to enjoy our happy life together. We miss you as always and love you ever so much. Just stay well and don't worry about us.

We spent a lovely day and were outside a fair hour and more. We awoke at 8 A.M. had a nice breakfast with the kids and went out in the sun. While the revels played in a sand pile we sunned ourselves on a delicious chair near the house. Soon it was lunch time and we finished early and gave Jim and Jan their naps. Then each of them took them out in the carriage and walked on the road for much time in town. Jim walked part of the way and all Jim had was a bit and my for I saw those took some snapshots and had come back exhausted and just drank with the sweet country air. It's really grand here and we're having a really enjoyable time.

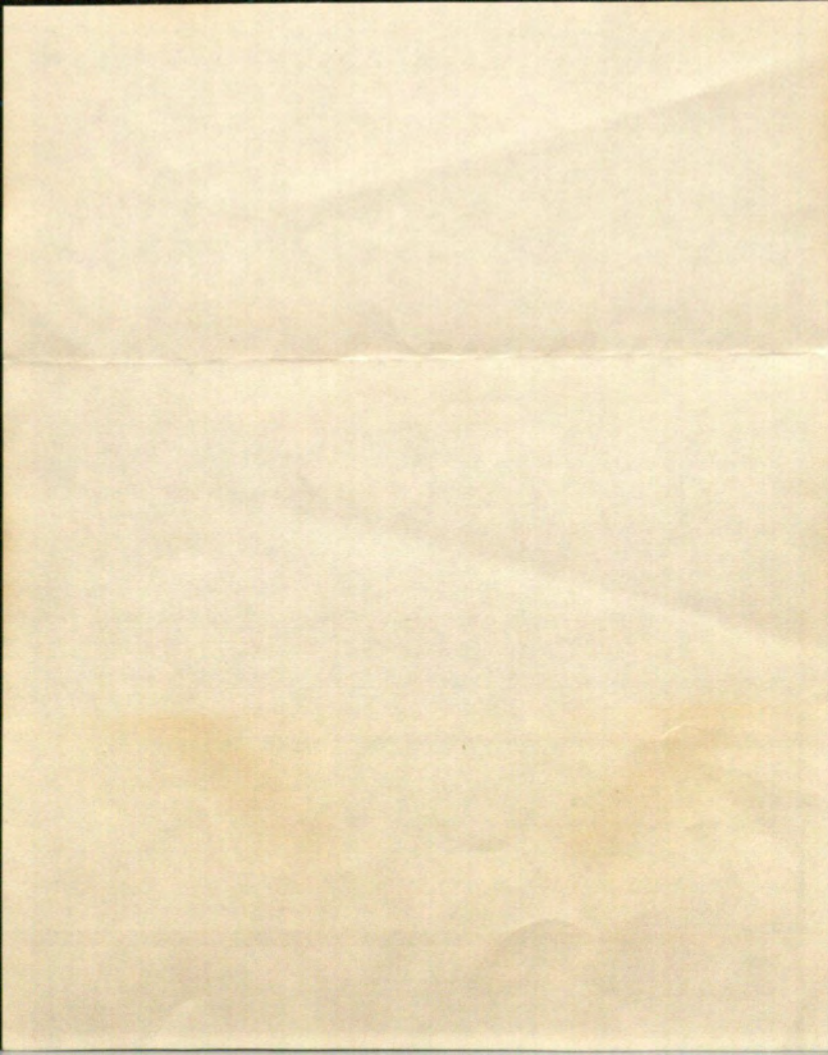

All my love and devotion to you my love and to all and they from me. Best wishes from Jim and I. Stay well and don't worry.
