

Wednesday eve -
June 14th 1904.

Dearest sweetheart,

It's still the most wonderful feeling to know that we love each other so much and the fact that we'll be together on Tuesday evening of the coming week. I'm trying so hard not to get too excited but the joy keeps oozing out of me every other minute. Baby and I are just swell and hope you're that way too.

In the morning I received your Monday letter and do hope you've already had some luck in getting us an apartment or even temporary quarters. Mr. Pinus called early to tell me that he bought us a ticket (one way) to Chicago and I'll pick it up on Friday morning. At Chicago I'll get a ticket for St. Paul and I'll wire you from there. I'll also get the stock certificates and signed vouchers and leave them with Mr. Pinus in the office in case he decides to sell the stocks. I did buy a bond for June and am leaving about $400.00 in the checking account. Paid the electric, gas and insurance (Comm. Transfer) bills and called ^{m.} Eidler to night but he wasn't home. Spoke to Mrs. Eidler who's swell and sends her best regards to you.

Julia also called to-day to ask if he can do something for me - I said there's nothing to be done. We were indoors most of the day and I did get to gether many things and made a few calls. I'll see Dr. Buchman to-morrow and have a talk with him about me and the advisability of you know what. Jimmie will also get his check up this week.

To night my Aunt Medred was with me to help with little things but I do wish I was alone to do what I wanted to do this evening. Betty just came in too and I'll probably accomplish something after they all leave.

Mom and Pop spoke with me, they're well and are so happy that we'll be together soon. Their love to you. Bess called a short time ago and is well and very happy about my trip to you. The baby is fine and growing up fast.

Sarah is coming in on two mornings this week to tidy up the place and cover everything so I won't touch the house.
Jimmy is still as cute a kid as ever and soon, Daddy,
you'll see him in the flesh.

Good night, sweetheart, all my love to you and a hug and kiss from baby. Regards from all at home.

Lovingly yours,
Florence
